

Cookie Notice

A cookie is an element of data that a website can send to your browser, which may then store it on your system. Some cookies are necessary, in that they enable basic functions like page navigation and access to secure areas of the website. Others are optional, but very useful, in that they help website operators understand how visitors interact with their websites by collecting and reporting website use information anonymously to the operator.

Our Website uses one necessary cookie and two optional cookies. We have not given you the option to decline our necessary cookie, but the two optional cookies are disabled by default; we only start to use them if you click “Accept” on the Cookie Banner that appears at the bottom of your screen upon your first visit to our website.

Necessary Cookies

Necessary cookies enable core functionality such as security, highlighting page errors, network management, and accessibility. You may disable these by changing your browser settings, but this may affect how the website functions.

Our website uses the following necessary cookie:

Name	Provider	Purpose	Duration	Type
firebase-installations-database#firebase-installations-store	nextiles.tech	Control cookie used in connection with the web site’s Content Delivery Network (CDN).	Persistent	6

Optional Cookies (Statistics)

Statistic cookies help website owners to understand how visitors interact with websites by collecting and reporting information anonymously.

When you click “Accept” on the Cookie Banner that appears at the bottom of your screen upon your first visit to our website, we activate the following statistics cookies:

Name	Provider	Purpose	Duration	Type
_ga	nextiles.tech	Registers a unique ID that is used to generate statistical data on how the visitor uses the website.	2 years	HTTP
